

November 17th, 2024 Discussion Questions

Promises Made, Revelation 3:7-13

1) Of the promises laid out in this passage for those who are born again, which one do you find the most comfort in? What is it about this promise that gives you comfort?

2) How do we know with certainty that Jesus is trustworthy? In what ways has Jesus proven Himself to be trustworthy in your life?

3) Why is obedience more important than wealth, social standing, power, etc.?

4) What are practical ways you might encourage someone who is seeking to persevere the race marked out for them amidst the discouragement they face?

5) Why does it matter that Jesus will keep His promises? What are some of your favorite promises in Scripture?