

Promises Made

Discussion Questions – Revelation 3:6-13

- 1) Of the promises laid out in this passage for those who are born again, which one do you find the most comfort in? What is it about this promise that gives you comfort?
- 2) How do we know with certainty that Jesus is trustworthy? In what ways has Jesus proven Himself to be trustworthy in your life?
- 3) Why is obedience more important than wealth, social standing, power, etc.?
- 4) What are practical ways you might encourage someone who is seeking to persevere the race marked out for them amidst the discouragement they face?
- 5) Why does it matter that Jesus will keep His promises? What are some of your favorite promises in Scripture?

White Gift Offering

We would like to invite you to be part of our Christmas White Gift Offering. This year we have chosen four projects:

1. Help provide furnishings for the Mitcha School in Angola (Mudde) - $22502.
2. Help to purchase a car for ministry in Thailand (Flowers) - $21003.
3. Print two doctrinal books for the Ifugao Philippine Church (Douglas) - $22904.
4. Help provide food and resources for the Los Pinos Bible Training Center in Cuba (A. Ehmann) - $2360 ($2080 for food and $280 for textbooks)

We have set a goal of $9,000. Excess funds received will go towards additional furnishings for the Mitcha School.

We would encourage you to pray for these projects and consider helping with the White Gift Offering.

If you feel led to give, there are two options.

1. Clearly mark an envelope with White Gift Offering & put it in the offering box at PTC. Our Sunday School children have coloured some envelopes that you may use. They are by the offering boxes.
2. Give online by E-transfer. Send to donations@prairietab.com. Please make note in the message that your gift is for the White Gift Offering.

Please see the bulletin insert for more information.
