Upcoming Events

To all Ladies of the Tab,

WMF invites you to an afternoon with Dr. T.S. Rendall on Monday, January 13th at 2:30 PM in the Blue Room. Pastor Ted will be sharing a message titled, 'Face to Face: A Glorious Prospect'.

We want to thank each one who gave to the White Gift Offering. A total of $9,935 has been given. We praise the Lord that we were able to reach our goal of $9000 for the four projects. The extra $935 will go towards additional furnishings for the Mitcha School in Angola.

Thank you to all who gave us cards and gifts of appreciation over the Christmas season.

Missionary of the Week

Joseph and Larissa Colyn, Ethnos Canada

Joseph and Larissa serve in Papua New Guinea. As an 18-year-old Joseph spent time hiking in Irian Jaya. He also spent 3 months living with a missionary family in a village in Papua New Guinea. Joseph was challenged by this to be involved in tribal missions.

Larissa grew up in Papua New Guinea as a missionary kid.

Presently Joseph is the Asia Regional Security Coordinator, and Larissa is the Candidate Coach. Their future plans are to move to Port Moresby. A home assignment for this summer is also being planned.

November was a good month for our General Fund, with income $1,305 above budget, and expenses $5,153 under budget. The resulting monthly surplus of over $6,500 raises our General Fund Balance, and raises our grade to an A+ (more than 3 month's of expenses on hand)! Our year-to-date income is well above budget, which is very encouraging to me. Also, our White Gift Project goal (separate from our General Fund) of $9,000 was exceeded. Praise God for these good results!
